INSTRUCTIONS: The following criteria, drawn from the Research Project Guidelines handout, are the bases by which your research project paper is evaluated and graded. You must evaluate the strengths and areas to improve on for your paper before submitting it for a grade. Do so by filling in the Student Comments side of this form. Your instructor will fill in the Instructor Comments side, offering you his assessment and comparison, and affixing a grade. This exercise allows for improvement of your own writing through better self-critique.
