INTRODUCTION TO LIBRARY RESOURCES
Library at Lansing Community College – www.lcc.edu/library

Getting Help www.lcc.edu/library/help

To get help from a librarian, just click the Ask a Librarian button – it’s at the top right side of every page of the library website and in the library box on course homepages in Desire2Learn.

You can get help in several ways:

- Visit
- Email
- Phone
- Text
- Chat

The chat reference service is available 24/7.

Databases fish.lcc.edu/search/y

Databases give you access to articles from magazines, newspapers and journals, as well as e-books, videos, and images. You can access library databases from the dark blue navigation bar at the top of every page on the library website.

Catalog fish.lcc.edu

The library catalog gives you access to books, audio and video items as well as e-books and government documents. Electronic resources can be accessed anytime. You can access the library catalog from the dark blue navigation bar at the top of every page on the library website.

Research Guides libguides.lcc.edu

Librarians put together research guides for a wide range of courses and topics. They are a good starting point for research in any subject area. You can select them by topic. There are guides for Writing 121, 122, 124, and 127.

Citing Sources www.lcc.edu/library/help/citation

You can get help citing your sources by clicking on MLA & APA Citation under Help on the library homepage. There are examples and handouts to help you.

Textbooks www.lcc.edu/library/services/reserves

The library may have your textbook available as a course reserve. Select Textbooks under Services on the library homepage. Most course reserves are for 2 hour use and may not leave the library.

Find www.lcc.edu/library/find

Use the Find section on the left side of the library’s homepage gives to access many types of resources such as statistics, websites, and practice tests.